INTRODUCTION

Welcome! This guide was created with you in mind, because no two people, styles, or stories are ever the same. Your jacket should feel just as unique as you are, whether you're envisioning something bold and expressive, soft and personal, or completely one-of-a-kind.

Custom pieces are more than just clothing. They're wearable art, built around your ideas, your energy, and the details that matter most to you. My goal is to make this process feel clear, inspiring, and easy so you can confidently explore your options and find what best fits your vision and your budget. Take your time browsing through the guide, and imagine what's possible. Whether you already have a clear concept or are just starting to dream it up, this is here to help you shape something that truly feels like you.

FORM SUBMISSION

COLOR

I don't accept mailed-in jackets for custom painting. All jackets are personally sourced and picked up by me to ensure quality, consistency, and the best possible surface for artwork. This allows me to carefully select each piece and properly prepare it before the creative process begins. Specific color requests can be made upon inquiry, and I will do my best to source the closest shade available if it can be obtained.
